

19 January 1968

The Honorable Fred R. Harris
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Attention: Dr. Leslie R. Kreps

Dear Senator Harris:

This is in response to your letter of 10 January 1968 in connection with the desires of [redacted] to receive an overseas assignment. STATINTL

As I explained the situation to Dr. Kreps, the matter of future assignments is handled most carefully in the Agency. The Career Service Board having jurisdiction over [redacted] has considered the possibility of an overseas assignment for Miss [redacted] a number of times. Taking all factors into consideration, they have been unable to date to find another such assignment. In addition, [redacted] brought her views to the attention of our Inspector General who also carefully looked into the matter. As of this time, however, no overseas assignment has been identified for [redacted] STATINTL

I should like to assure you that preferences of individuals for assignments are given every consideration consistent with Agency needs, availability of other personnel and any other pertinent factors. I appreciate your interest in the matter and please do not hesitate to let me know if I can supply any additional information.

Sincerely,
